Postmodernism is a broad movement that developed in the mid- to late 20th century across philosophy, the arts, architecture, and criticism and that marked a departure from modernism. The term has also more generally been applied to the historical era following modernity and the tendencies of this era. (In this context, "modern" is not used in the sense of "contemporary", but merely as a name ...

New Criticism. A literary movement that started in the late 1920s and 1930s and originated in reaction to traditional criticism that new critics saw as largely concerned with matters extraneous to the text, e.g., with the biography or psychology of the author or the work's relationship to literary history.

The painting by Philip Guston (1913-1980), entitled The Poet (1975, oil on canvas, private collection, USA), is not the illustration of a theory or a dream: it is that painted dream. The unknown (even for the artist) is born in its truth here, in the picture. The spider's web is Circe's fabric, a History of Art, as a state of perspective that collects the composition, and slides by the profile ...
